NATIONS SCHOOL OF EDUCATION (NaSEd)

For over 15 years Nations has offered courses in education to hundreds of trainers and teachers throughout Guyana. The MA in Education from the University of Bedfordshire is an excellent qualification designed to meet the changing needs of today's educators.

ABOUT THE COURSE

Each of the four modules is studied over 15 weeks with classes held on the weekends. Then a dissertation is submitted. Successful students will be awarded an MA in Education (with specialization) from the University of Bedfordshire

MA EDUCATION - GENERAL

This course allows you to gain further knowledge and understanding in areas of working with children and adults in a wide variety of educational contexts. You will have the opportunity to explore how education systems work internationally, as well as looking at philosophical, sociological, historical, and practical influences on education and policy.

MA EDUCATION - LEADERSHIP

This course is designed to prepare you to become a professional who is (or is planning to be) actively involved in educational leadership, management and school reform, and who wishes to undertake study at a postgraduate level.

MA EDUCATION - SPECIAL EDUCATION

The aim of this course is to support students in further developing their understanding of Special Education Needs, so that they can contribute towards the inclusion of students within educational settings.

ASSESSMENTS

Assessments are rooted in real life and practical school scenarios to enable learning to be transferred to the workplace with the added focus on developing a practical reflection on school reform. A range of assessment is used including; written reports, project plans and seminar plans.
